

From the desk of —

MAJOR GENERAL C. A. WILLOUGHBY

My Dear Bill

I am leaving for New York
on June 19th via Unitex Air Lines ;
flight 44 , the " Southerner", to arrive
on La Guardia . June 20th at 8 55 A M
Thereafter :

New York Office : J A Singmaster
Graybar Bldg Grand Central N.Y.

I am sorry I got my addresses mislaid, in the rush of packing. I trust that this form of mailing worked out. However, from Bronxville, I will probably write you to your private, home-address.

Retirement proceedings are in full swing, to terminate sometime soon.
In the meantime, I am on " sick-leave".

If and when you should have occasion to get to New York, I will meet you any time. Regards to Mrs Smith

Cordially W

Charles
